

BattleRoad Farm

Back of the Hill

Charlestown Navy Yard

Napa Pipe

Redevelopment

Campus Housing

Charlestown Navy Yard Rowhouses
Charlestown, MA

A fifty-unit complex of brick housing, located directly on Boston Harbor in the Charlestown Navy Yard. Ranging from three to seven stairs, the project includes a mix of selected townhouses and elevator-served apartments. The Charlestown project was cited as one of the "Best Designs of 1988" by both The New York Times and TIME Magazine (47,000 s.f.)

1994 Honor Award in Architecture, National American Institute of Architects; 1993 Brick in Architecture Award, Brick Institute of America, AIA; 1991 Honor Award in Architecture, New England Chapter, AIA; 1991 Honor Award for Design Excellence, Boston Society of Architects; 1990 Excellence in Housing Award, AIA; 1990 First Award, Boston Society of Architects, Design Excellence in Housing Award; 1990 Honor Award, Waterfront Center, Washington, DC; Time Magazine: "Design: Best of 1988," Time 1.2.89; New York Times: "The Year's Best: 1988 in Review," New York Times Sunday Arts and Leisure, 12/25/88

Photography: © Steve Rosenthal

SHARE +