

LIBRARIES AND COURTHOUSES

SACRED SPACES

Church of the Transfiguration

Glavin Family Chapel

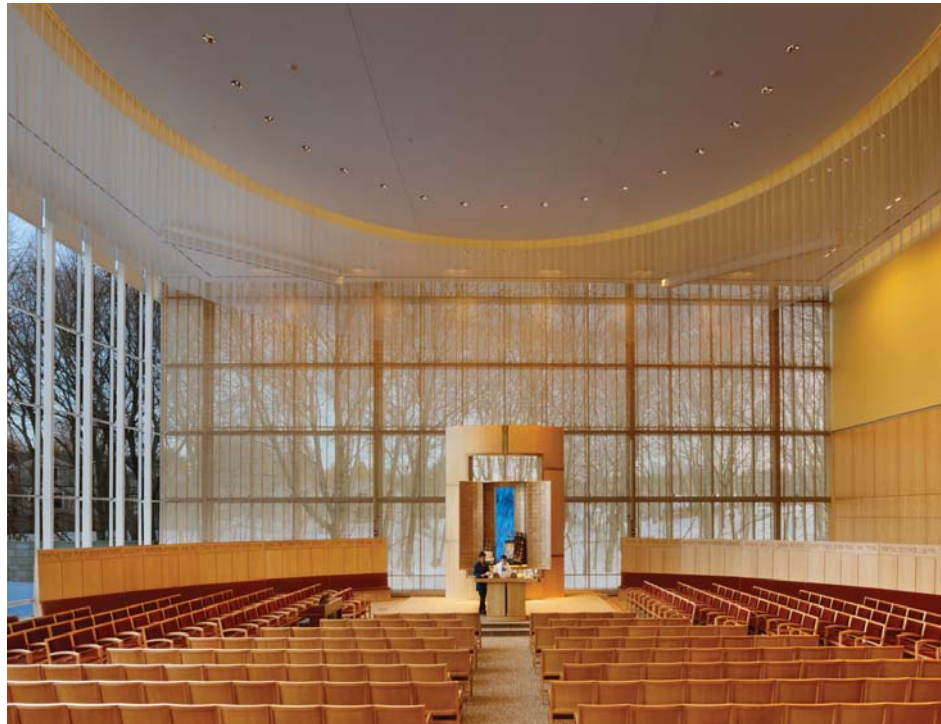

Mt. Auburn Cemetery Expansion

→ Temple Beth Elohim

PARKING GARAGES

POLICE/FIRESTATIONS

PLANNING + CORPORATE

Temple Beth Elohim
Wellesley, MA

This new synagogue for Temple Beth Elohim on the site of their existing facility features a flexible sanctuary which will accommodate up to 1000 during High Holy Days, while still providing an intimate setting for 400 during weekly services. The new temple is sensitively sited to take full advantage of the surrounding wooded hillside and nearby wetlands.

> Boston Sunday Globe – “A Temple, A Masterwork”
>Printer Friendly PDF

2012 Faith & Form, Religious Architecture;
2012 Chicago Athenaeum, American Architecture Award; 2011 BSA Honor Award

Photography: © Bruce Martin Photography

SHARE +

